ABOUT INATEL

INATEL was founded in 1935 as a National Foundation, to develop leisure activities for employees.
We provide services in the areas of tourism, social care, culture and sports.

INATEL TURISMO is one of the biggest and oldest Portuguese tour operators, which provides business to business destination management services covering the entire Portuguese territory, including Porto, Lisbon, the Algarve and the islands of Madeira and the Azores.

As a result of our team's experience, our offer represents a strong reference in the Portuguese tourism market, for the originality and quality of its programmes, aiming to innovate and discover "the genuine experience" in Portugal, at a very competitive price.

INATEL TURISMO is a partner of the ISTO (International Social Tourism Organization) and the WTO (World Tourism Organization).

OUR ASSETS

With over 75 years of experience, the INATEL Foundation presents a wide offer of excellent quality:

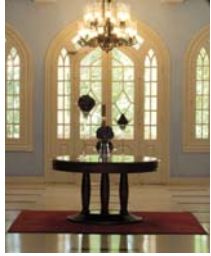

18 HOTELS, 4 camping sites and 2 spas, representing an offer of 2.600 beds, located in memorable and unique places, covering the entire Portuguese territory.

A NETWORK OF 23 AGENCIES, one per each Portuguese province, which contributes to the profound knowledge of Portugal.

The Azores are currently one of the world's biggest whale sanctuaries. Among resident and migrant species, current or rare, more than 20 different types of cetaceans can be spotted in the Azores.

Between S. Miguel and Santa Maria islands, in spring time, Blue Whale, the biggest animal on earth, with 30m long, frequently gives people the blessing of its presence.
